Offender Escapes from Plummer Community Corrections Center

An offender serving a sentence at the Plummer Community Corrections Center (PCCC) in Wilmington left the facility grounds without authorization on Thursday, March 14.

Joseph Wilson was observed leaving the facility by climbing over a perimeter fence around 10:00 p.m.

Wilson is a 24-year-old white male (DOB 06/04/1988) who is 5'10" and weighs 170 pounds. He has brown eyes, brown hair and has a scar on his left eyebrow and tattoos on his left hand, right arm, right forearm and back. Wilson was last seen wearing dark-colored pants, a dark gray jacket, black knit hat and white sneakers. His last known address is in Wilmington.

Wilson arrived at PCCC on February 13, 2013, to serve a six-month sentence for a Violation of Probation on an original charge of Robbery 2nd.

Officers continue their search for Wilson and request that anyone with information call (800) 542-9524 or their local police department.

Plummer Community Corrections Center is a Level 4 facility where the Department of Correction manages offenders who are transitioning back into the community. These centers are not secured like Level 5 prisons, as offenders are permitted to leave the facility to go to work, seek jobs or attend approved treatment sessions.
